Other Use Exemption Category (Check one)

- Rental is a truck that has a gross vehicle rating greater than 8,500 pounds that is designed, used, or maintained primarily for the transportation of personal property.
- Rental is a vehicle provided by an automobile dealer to a customer as replacement transportation during warranty, recall, or service contract repairs and the dealer does not receive compensation from the customer (Automobile Dealer's Section below must be completed by dealer)

Automobile Dealer's Section (complete only if vehicle provided by dealer during warranty, service contract repairs, recall, etc.)

Maximum daily rental amount allowed or authorized by the warranty or repair contract for rental of a replacement vehicle provided to a customer during warranty, recall, or service contract repairs.

$

Important Note: The customer is responsible for the applicable tax on all amounts over the allowable maximum daily rental amount.

I verify the following:

- The vehicle is being provided to the customer as replacement transportation during warranty, recall, or service contract repairs.
- The maximum daily rental amount authorized by the warranty or repair contract is not being paid by the customer.
- If the customer elects to upgrade to a vehicle with daily rental value greater than the maximum daily rental amount authorized by the warranty or repair contract, vehicle rental tax is being charged on the additional compensation received from the customer.
