Introduction

In accordance with Alaska Statute 37.07.060 (b)(4) the Revenue Source Book is compiled annually to assist the Governor in formulating a proposed comprehensive financial plan for presentation to the State Legislature. Since fiscal year (FY) 1975, responsibility for compiling and publishing this summary of State Revenues has come under the Department of Revenue's jurisdiction. Within the publication are shown prior year actuals, revised current year estimates, and upcoming year projections.

The State receives three major classes of income: Unrestricted, Restricted, and Special Fund Revenues.

1. Unrestricted Revenues are paid into the General Fund and may be appropriated for any purpose. These receipts are listed in the Source Book by type; i.e. Taxes, Licenses and Permits, etc.
2. Restricted Revenues are those received for specific purposes, primarily from the Federal Government. Only budget category totals are given.
3. Special Fund Revenues are those received into statutorily established funds such as the International Airports Revenue Fund.

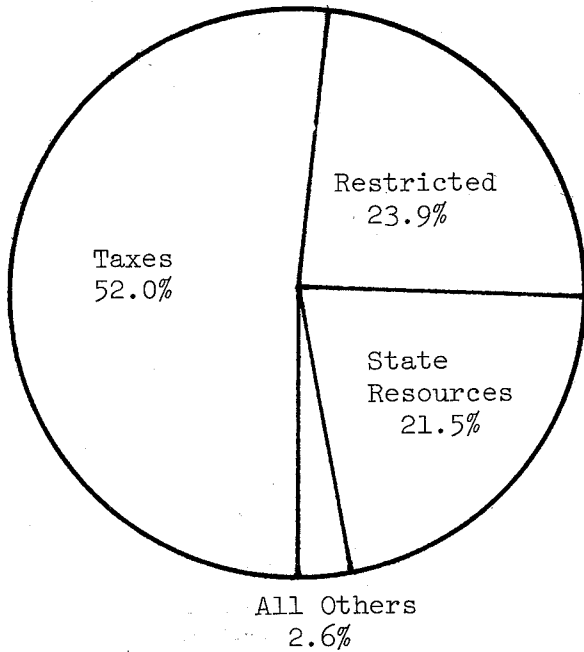

Anticipated State income is projected through the use of a number of data sources: 1) An econometric model developed by the Department of Revenue's Research Section to forecast unrestricted non-petroleum revenues, 2) A petroleum revenue forecasting model created by the Department's Petroleum Revenue Division, and 3) Estimates from individual State agencies.

The Department of Revenue thanks the various State agencies for their cooperation in computing anticipated revenues for publication in this document.

ALASKA NATIVE CLAIMS FUND.

Under the terms of Sec. 9 of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement act regarding mineral leases, the State is obligated to pay into the Alaska Native Fund 2% of the gross value of royalties received by the State for minerals produced or removed from State lands and 2% of all rentals and bonuses from such leases. The same conditions are imposed on the Federal Government for mineral leases on Federal lands in Alaska. Payments are to continue until such time as the combined amount paid by the State and Federal Government reaches $500,000,000. State payments into the fund must be made within sixty days from the date the revenues are received by the State.
